

Dion Roscoe "wins it for Kirk" in Showdown '95

Bull rider Dion Roscoe, whom both Elk Point and St. Paul can claim as a home town hero, has dedicated his championship win at the 1995 Showdown finals of the Lakeland Rodeo Association to his late friend and travelling companion Kirk Jackknife. In a move reminiscent of American bull rider Tuff Hedeman, who won the world championship the year after his travelling partner Lane Frost was killed, Roscoe accepted the win, saying, "This one's for you, Kirk."

Roscoe came into the finals as season leader and accumulated top placing in the Saturday evening performance on top of two third place marks on Friday night and Saturday afternoon to accumulate 80 points, and although he and all the bull riders except Tony Kryvenchuk bit the dust in the final performance, that total held for the championship. Derek Hehr of Gibbons, who won top day money Friday and placed second Saturday afternoon, was Roscoe's closest competitor with 70 points, and won the High Average award.

Former St. Paul resident Ted Hehr, now of Sherwood Park, was another favorite throughout the five performances, as he rode all five of his Bareback Broncs to a championship and the high average, well ahead of his closest competitor, Dean Cruikshank of Hanna. Dale Pollock of Pierceland, who missed the final two performances due to an injury Saturday afternoon, was the season leader, with Hehr as runner up.

The Saddle Bronc championship went to Gordie Lambert of High Level. His final ride on Cox Rodeo Stock's "Dark Town" was a 77 point exhibition of excellence in bronc riding. Gary Sutter of Sherwood Park was the season runner up, while Kevin Bresee of Ponoka won the finals average award.

In the Junior Bull Riding, season leader 16 year old Jace

Harty of Lacombe rode all five of his bulls to win the championship. Harty also won the finals average award, while Malcolm Anderson of Grand Centre was season runner-up.

Bobby Joe Kramps of Crooked Creek was named the Novice Horse Riding champion, edging out close competitors CJ Best of Heinsburg and Conrad Cox of High Prairie, and also won the finals average award. Best received the season runner-up award.

In the timed events, season leader Jacqueline Stojan of Sexsmith kept up the pace, even when her point total was tied with Janice Waltze of Innisfree and Lynnette Brodoway of Fort Macleod after Sunday's run. Ms Stojan turned in a time of 13.728 in the runoff, to take the win. Tara Muldoon, Hinton, won the finals average award, while Natalie Ree of Bentley was the season runner-up.

Sayward Russell of St. Albert came into the Junior

Terry Fox Run scheduled for September 17

Last year, 34 Elk Point and district residents raised over $3200 toward cancer research with their 10 kilometer Terry Fox Run, and this year the committee is hoping for even more participants and more pledges as they take part in the world's largest one-day fundraiser for this worthy cause.

The Run will take place Sunday, September 17, with registration beginning at 1:00 p.m. at the Elk Point Recreation Park gazebo. Participants may run, walk or bike — or even ride in a wheelchair or stroller. The course will be the same as last year, and will circle back to finish at the gazebo. The run starts at 1:30 p.m.

This is a family-oriented, non-competitive event, and the organizers would like everyone to participate in whatever way they can. Provincial Terry Fox Foundation director Mario Siciliano points out that "it is more important to cross the start line than the finish line." In keeping with the unquenchable spirit of the late Terry Fox, the run will go on rain or shine. All money goes to Canadian cancer research.

Pledge forms are available at the Elk Point Town office and at several local businesses. For more information, please call Denise Maas at 645-3775, June Cinnamon at 724-3810 or Michelle Dargis at 645-6068.

After the race, participants will enjoy barbecued hot dogs, refreshments and cake. Prizes will be presented for such categories as "most money raised" and "youngest participant."

Please help to do your part to carry on the dream.

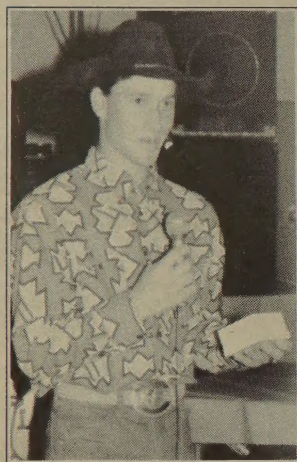

JUNIOR BARREL RACING SEASON RUNNER-UP - Erica Nielsen(right) was presented with a trophy watch by Diane Bailey and Suzanne Landiak, representing the Co-op Mall Merchants. Erica also won the Finals Average award.

Barrel Racing finals in fourth spot, but took such a firm lead that even a tipped barrel on Sunday could not keep her from the championship. Erica Nielsen of Elk Point, who had a first, two seconds, a third and a fourth placing to her credit, was the only junior barrel racer to ride penalty free during the finals, and won the season runner-up award, the finals average award and the Best Dressed Junior designation.

Steer Wrestling was won by Dean Lawes of Provost. The fastest run of the finals went to Guy Perozak of Kipp, who downed his steer in a very impressive 3.3 seconds on Saturday evening. Shane Buksa of Mannville was season runner-up, while Brice Lakevold of Cadogan had the best average time of the finals on five completed runs.

The Calf Roping finals didn't start off too auspiciously for Rob Cunningham of Leduc, who took a 'no time' on Friday night, but two solid wins in the next two performances and a third place Saturday night were enough to earn him the championship. Buck Weinrich of Mayerthorpe was Season Leader, with Rocky Ross of Botha the runner-up. Guy Perozak won the finals average award.

Team Roping was filled with empty loops and one-heel catches, but Murray Linthicum of Glentworth and Rocky Dallyn of Calgary overcame both and added the fastest run of Sunday's performance, a 4.9, to take the championship and the finals average award. Daryn Knapp of Strathmore and Dwight Wigemyr of Fort Macleod won season leader honors, with Leonard and Ronald Schmidt of Barrhead as runners up.

The Showdown '95 Finals was enjoyed by huge and enthusiastic crowds, and featured an exciting and colorful opening ceremony and numerous hilarious antics by rodeo clowns, Ricky Ticky and Tony Wanchuk.

Saturday afternoon's performance also featured a special event for the children, who were invited down into the arena to meet the performers

FCSS News

Wondering just what does FCSS do, anyway?

Welcome back! As the summer activities wind down, we hope that everyone had a wonderful summer and is re-energized for an exciting fall.

For any new or existing residents who might be unfamiliar with FCSS, we encourage you to phone or drop by for a visit to learn about the programs and services we provide to the community. FCSS believes in the value of the individual, the strength of the family and the concept of people working together to achieve a healthy, supportive community. Our philosophy is "people helping people to help themselves." Volunteer assistance is greatly relied upon and we welcome community input and direction.

You might ask... just what does FCSS do? Here are some of the local and regional projects FCSS has been involved in over the past year:

Meals-on-Wheels: this is a joint project between the Elk Point Health Centre and FCSS to provide hot, nourishing meals to people who need a little assistance in their homes.

Elk Point Child Care Services: provides child care services in a warm and nurturing environment; provides alternative child care choices for parents, and employment to Elk Point residents.

Income Tax Assistance: this is a joint project through Revenue Canada and FCSS; this year volunteers completed tax returns for over 45 people in our community.

Information and referral: FCSS provides information and referral services to assist community individuals and agencies on anything from counselling services to services for seniors. If you have a question or need assistance... we'll try to help you find the answer. From January 1 to May 31, 1995, FCSS made over 2656 contacts with agencies and the general public.

Community-Based Crisis Intervention & Stabilization:

FCSS is working at a local and regional level on this initiative. Elk Point Interagency has formed a sub-committee to identify gaps and to develop a system to respond to need/crisis in our community.

Children's Services: FCSS has helped to facilitate public meetings and continues to collaborate with local agencies on this initiative.

Youth Projects: This year, FCSS is involved in a multi-agency undertaking to bring the Youth Service Canada project to Elk Point; Interagency is hosting a True Colors family workshop this fall; and FCSS will once again contribute the Family Life award at F. G. Miller Awards Night.

Information Night: is coordinated annually by FCSS to make residents more aware of the educational, recreational and service club activities available in Elk Point; to promote registration and participation in these activities; and to increase contact and communication between community organizations. This year Information Night will be held on Tuesday, September 19 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. at the Elks Hall.

Seniors Projects: working in cooperation with the Seniors on Well Informed and Intergenerational workshops, Seniors' Week activities, and development of transportation services and permanent resources for seniors.

Community Directory: FCSS annually publishes a Community Directory that lists frequently used numbers and meeting dates of all local organizations; lists information on community organizations as well as a brief description of their purpose; lists individuals/agencies with expertise in different areas; this information is also provided to people who are considering relocating to Elk Point.

Volunteer Directory: FCSS annually publishes a Volunteer Directory that provides a brief description of volunteer organizations followed by specific volunteer information (contacts, job requirements, volunteer opportunities, skills, time commitment, training, and personal satisfaction).

Volunteerism: FCSS facilitates and promotes awareness of volunteerism; Elk Point volunteers contribute over a million and a half dollars annually to our community.

Community TV Channel: this free community service assists individuals and non-profit organizations in promoting services and special events.

Elks Van Bookings: FCSS assists the Elks in coordinating all bookings for the Elks Van; for a nominal charge, non-profit community organizations can use the van for their club's activities.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

ViewPoints

The season of change

September has arrived: back to the real world, everyone.

Gone are the lazy days of summer vacation, as students get back to their books, holidays are completed, and everyone looks forward to a busy autumn filled with activities.

As the first leaves start to show a hint of gold, we realize that many changes have taken place in the community. A number of families have left Elk Point, to take up new challenges elsewhere, and several new families have moved here from other localities. We will miss those who have gone, and the many contributions they made to our way of life, but we look forward to meeting our new friends and neighbors, and helping to make them feel at home here and to learn about the various activities and pastimes they may enjoy here.

Change, as Nature is currently showing us, is part of the life process, and is not only inevitable but essential. How else would progress ever occur?

Thus, we progress into a new season, and look forward to seeing what exciting times it will bring. Happy back-to-school, kids, teachers and moms! Best wishes for a great season to all the sport, cultural and social groups now getting underway for another year. Make sure to let us know what's happening so we can pass on the news.

Canada Remembers

Civilian support to the Allied forces

Canada Remembers is Canada's national and international program aimed at commemorating the 50th anniversary of the end of the Second World War, and ensuring that Canada's participation in the war is appropriately honored.

Many individuals and civilian organizations worked closely with Allied forces during the Second World War. Their contributions were important to the successful outcome of the war.

THE MERCHANT NAVY

The Merchant Navy aided the war effort by transporting equipment, fuel, goods and personnel to Europe and throughout the world. The most dangerous missions were during the Battle of the Atlantic, a six-year campaign between Allied forces and German U-boats. Merchant crews displayed extraordinary courage as they faced fierce attacks by "wolf-packs" of U-boats and the dangerous storms of the North Atlantic.

* 1200 women and men served in the Merchant Navy.

* When the war began, Canada had only 38 merchant vessels; 410 more were built during the war.

* More than 25,000 merchant ship voyages were made during the war.

* Approximately 1500 merchant mariners were killed, including 8 women.

* The proportion of those killed in the Merchant Navy was greater than any branch of the Canadian forces.

SPIES, SABOTEURS AND SECRET AGENTS

Britain enlisted a number of Canadian special operators for special duty during the Second World War. They served in France, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Italy, Burma, Malaysia and Sarawak.

* Some Canadians joined the Special Operations Executive which organized resistance and sabotage within occupied countries.

* Others served in M.I.9, Military Intelligence. They assisted with prisoner-of-war escapes and helped downed airmen evade enemy capture.

* Some special operators trained at Camp X on Lake Ontario in whose icy waters they trained in the techniques of underwater demolition.

CORPS OF (CIVILIAN) CANADIAN FIRE-FIGHTERS

The Corps was organized in 1942 to help British firefighters combat the fires caused by German bombing.

* Of the 422 men who served in the Corps, half were professional firefighters and half had no experience.

* Firefighters received $1.30 pay per day from the Canadian government and received no training other than what the veteran firefighters could teach them.

* Casualties overseas included three dead and eight seriously wounded.

BENEVOLENT AND MEDICAL AID ORGANIZATIONS

Representatives of several organizations served overseas to provide support to Canadian troops. Although their jobs were often behind the lines, their work could often be hazardous.

* 585 members of the Canadian Legion War Services, Inc., the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army and the YMCA set up canteens and reading rooms for soldiers. Casualties included 8 killed and 63 wounded.

* Medical personnel with the Red Cross and St. John's Ambulance Brigade served as assistants to nurses and ambulance drivers.

AIRCRAFT TRANSPORT

Some Canadian men and women took on the difficult and sometimes dangerous job of flying aircraft built in Canada to Britain for use by the Royal Air Force.

* They served in Number 45 Wing of the Royal Airforce Transport Command, Number 45 Group of the Royal Air Force Ferry Command or the Atlantic Ferrying Organization and piloted 10,000 planes.

* Pilots were paid between $500 and $1000 to make the trip and they had to find their own way home.

* The casualty rate was 20%.

NEWFOUNDLAND FORESTERS

Members of the Newfoundland Overseas Forestry Unit went overseas to help the British who needed a continuous supply of lumber.

* 3500 experienced loggers served in Britain.

* They cut down trees primarily in northern Scotland.

* 2100 also served in the British Home Guard.

Letter to the Editor

Service deserves recognition

The Editor:

My wife and I recently visited our family in Elk Point and camped with them at the Stoney Lake Campground.

I am writing to tell you how much we enjoyed our stay there. This is the second occasion on which we camped at Stoney Lake this year, and our satisfaction was due in no small part to the actions of Mr. Pomerleau and his wife, who are the caretakers of the campsite.

They were most kind and considerate and went out of their way to make our stay very pleasant. We have visited many campsites over the years - but we both agree that the service provided at Stoney Lake deserves recognition.

We wish to extend our best wishes and thanks to Mr. Pomerleau and his wife - for making travelers such as ourselves feel welcome.

Yours sincerely,

Ian Smith

What's News at the Library?

Storytime starts for another year

By Michele Ducek
Librarian

Summer is over and it's time to gear up for another year of work. Like I said last year, September has always seemed like the beginning of a new year to me. There will be a lot of stuff happening at the library this fall.

Storytime starts this Friday, September 8 at 10:30 a.m., and

Pioneer Circle bingo

August 28, 1995

Lynn Boyko $30, Pearl Slywka $15, Ed Piotrowski $15, Sophie Faithful $30, Lillian Palinka $45, Kristan Bepalko $15, Viola Yarmuch $30, Stanley Jendruck $10, Lynn Boyko $10, Walter Yaremkevich $10, Kathy Zarowny $15, Kelly Bannister $15, Lillian Ewasuik $30, George Botting $30, Alma Fiddler $30, Emma Osinchuk $30, Sylvester Gladue $30, Bernice Bykowski $30, Darlene Lalonde $30, Pearl Porcina $74, Ann Jacula $44, Emma Osinchuk $10, Mary Bugera $10, Stella Lorenson $10, Victor Lumley, $50, Rose Solway $121, Bob Whelan $43, Pearl Slywka $15, Carol Bugera $15, Stella Lorenson $15, Alice Drielech $43, Bernice Bykowski $43, Viola Yarmuch $43, Lena Cap $200.

Booker, the library cat, has returned from a long vacation and wants to share his summer vacation stories with all the kids. If anyone wants to read a story, sing a song, or do a fingerplay at any storytime, you are more than welcome. The kids sometimes get a little bored with me reading all the time. You can contact me at the library beforehand or just volunteer during storytime.

During the month of September, the Elk Point Public Library will be conducting a needs assessment survey. This is the first step in creating a new plan of service which will be completed by the end of the year. Individuals and organizations will be approached to fill out a very brief questionnaire. The input of both library users and nonusers is desired to get the full picture of the place the library has in our community. I hope everyone will help out.

A few new books at the library:

How to Succeed in Your Home Business by Larry Easto is a step-by-step guide that provides essential information and advice for launching a new venture.

Childhood Speech, Language and Listening Problems by Patricia McAleer Hamaguchi is a guide to help parents who have noticed their child's difficulty in getting the right words out, following directions or being understood.

Home Playgrounds by Marilyn Mohr shows you how to combine economical home-made equipment with sensible landscaping to create interesting play environments for your children in your own backyard.

Sheds by David Stiles contains everything you need to know to design and build a backyard shed that is anything but boring.

First he went around the world in eighty days. Then Michael Palin went Pole to Pole. Another delightful account of one man's travels. Lavishly illustrated with color photos throughout.

Remember Me as You Pass by Nancy Millar is an unusual history book that looks into the history that can be found in a prairie graveyard. An interesting view of history.

Interagency: FCSS collaborates with other human service agencies to meet the needs of the Elk Point community in a more complete way.

Jack and Jill Playschool: FCSS works with the Playschool membership to provide a learning-growing experience through play. Playschool also provides alternative child care choices for parents and parent relief services.

Welcome Package: in partnership with the business community and local organizations, FCSS provides a positive and personal welcome to new residents in Elk Point.

Family Violence Prevention: FCSS works in cooperation with the Family Support Group and the County FCSS in family violence prevention. Some projects have included Azimuth Theatre productions, formation of the Family Support Group and development of pamphlets and a resource library.

Parenting and Personal Development Workshops: In cooperation with Further Education, Interagency and other community groups, FCSS hosts a wide variety of workshops on topics such as suicide prevention, communication, anger, self-esteem, behavior, parenting, volunteerism and more.

Elk Point Elementary School hosts Lions Quest seminar

LIONS QUEST SEMINAR PARTICIPANTS included Sandra Ockerman, Carmen Spitzer, Debbie Buryn, Sylvia Conrad, Sylvia Boothman, Charlotte Tkachuk, Wayne Hymanyk, Linda Grabas, Janelle Richard, Sandy Myshak, Bernice Capjack-Hugo, Rick Bilak, Howard Meger, Orest Sereda, Rob Boyd, Myrna Fedorus, Marlyne Kryvenchuk, Lorraine Makowicki, Darlene Harper and Jodi Vogel, all of Elk Point Elementary; Cheri Lindquist of F. G. Miller High School, Yvonne St. Arnault, Tracy Long, Linda Nichols-Mandrasiak, Carol Soldan, Stephka Leonty and Lindsay Ewanchuk, teachers in other area schools; Linnette Newby and Cheryl Robertson of FCSS, and parents Marian Morgan, Roy Krekoski, Terry Gadowski and Marlene Ryks.

A total of 33 teachers, school support staff members, parents and FCSS representatives spent three days in Elk Point last week gathering enthusiasm and new ideas for the coming school year, via the Lions Quest program sponsored by Lions Clubs International.

The Lions Quest program is designed to foster a positive approach to education by getting not only teachers and students, but also parents and the community at large involved. The program deals with many aspects of a healthy lifestyle, from emotions, health and self esteem to community interaction.

Facilitator for the program was Bev Fisher of Atlanta, Georgia, who was presented with a package of information about Elk Point and area, along with a "University of Elk Point" t-shirt, an Elk Point Recreation Park t-shirt, a Bicentennial sash, an Elk Point Community Choir tape, numerous pins, and a St. Paul Lions Club banner as mementos of her visit to the area.

This followed the presentation of participation certificates by Danny Povaschuk of Elk Point and District Lions Club and Peter Curtis-Brown of the St. Paul Lions to each program member, who took a turn in the spotlight to receive the applause of their peers. Linnette Newby of County of St. Paul FCSS thanked the St. Paul Lions, while Marlyne Kryvenchuk of Elk Point Elementary School thanked the Elk Point Lions for their support. Mrs. Kryvenchuk also thanked Don Conrad and Don Buryn of the Elk Point Elementary staff for organizing the event. Buryn and Conrad had attended a similar event last year, and Buryn said they "felt cheated because we didn't get to do this with you." He gave high praise to the program, and said "we are the best when we do things together."

Trainer Bev Fisher led the group in a giant group hug, and said in closing that "your group is so special. You've touched me."

QUEST TRAINER - Bev Fisher of Atlanta, Georgia took home a "University of Elk Point" t-shirt presented by Don Buryn on behalf of the group, as well as a number of other mementos.

Silver medals

Marty Bendixen of Heinsburg and Kyle Braithwaite of Clondonald returned victorious from the Western Canada Summer Games in Abbotsford, BC recently. They were part of the second place Men's Softball team, and received silver medals.

WARM SLEDDING - Emily Macdonald won a third prize in the individual category of St. Paul Rodeo Parade with her crowd pleasing dogsled entry.
